

FYI

2007-2008 Scholarship Cycle

Approximately $14.3 million estimated to be available for FY 2007 awards
In FY 2007, it is estimated that $5,130,000 to be available for continuation awards;
$9,170,000 to be available for new awards

Prepatory and Pregraduate awards for full-time students are for 10 months in duration and average $24,366 per award

Health Professions awards are for 12 months in duration and average $38,236 per award

Nationally:

1100 applications were received

430 applications were deemed incomplete and therefore considered ineligible

Approximately 115 applicants were awarded

California:

24 applications received, all 24 submitted to the Area were incomplete

24 applicants were given the opportunity to submit missing info/documents to Area Coordinator

24 applications were forwarded to HQ for consideration

4 were Incomplete

1 was Ineligible

5 were complete but considered low scoring (69 points and below), thereby making them ineligible

7 scored high enough, but were unfunded

7 received awards in the following fields:

Social Work - PT

Physician's Assistant - FT

PreNursing - FT

Coding Specialist - FT

Physician, Osteopathy - FT

PreClinical Psychology - FT

Nurse Practitioner - FT

4 of those awarded were California Indians