

POSITION Behavioral Health Consultant (Clinician Psychologist or Psych NP)

SALARY G/ Starting Wage $38,951.00

DIVISION Medical Services, Primary Care - Anchorage, AK

NATURE OF WORK:

Responsible for the diagnosis, treatment and assessment of children, adolescents, and adults. Provides professional expertise and assist administration of a variety of therapeutic modalities and training programs in the field of mental health. Perform assessment and treatment for a wide range of mental disorders using current modalities of treatment, including individual, group, family, and child therapies, case management, & wrap around services as needed. Provide professional expertise and participates in the administration of a variety of therapeutic modalities and training programs in the field of mental health.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES:

Ability to perform comprehensive clinical assessment of population served. Ability to develop treatment plans based on assessment information that are documented appropriately, including identified goal(s), behavioral/psychological problem statement, measurable objectives and estimated time frames for achievement. Ability to utilize assessment information and collateral information to conceptualize client psychopathology. Ability to accurately and routinely utilize the DSM IV TR and assessment information to accurately diagnose individuals treated. Ability to independently produce professional and accurate written work (assessments, treatment plans, documentation, discharge summary reports) with minimal supervisory correction or editing. Ability to present Clinical presentations at clinical review meetings. Ability to utilize different therapeutic modalities including group therapy, individual, child, family, couples counseling, family support services and wrap around services. Ability to independently develop, coordinate and facilitate psycho-educational classes, groups and client activities as relevant to treatment plan/program. Demonstrates expanding capability to be self-directed in the management of responsibilities. Knowledge of and experience with a broad repertoire of psychotherapeutic skills from a variety of theoretical perspectives e.g. play therapy with children, cognitive behavioral and psychodynamic therapy with adults, psychoeducational therapy and family therapy. Group therapy experience and documented individual therapy skills are essential. Ability and comfort to precept and instruct health care providers at various levels.

QUALIFICATIONS:

SCF programs are established for the purpose of serving a primary population comprised of Alaska Natives who are affiliated with the Cook Inlet Region Inc. (CIRI), and Alaska Natives and American Indians within SCF's geographical service area. Employees should have a thorough understanding of the cultures and the needs of the CIRI members, and of the general culture and needs of Alaska Natives and American Indians. Such knowledge is critical in order to ensure the achievement of the mission and vision of SCF: working together with the Native community to provide the best services with Native staff who value the family and family wellness as the heart of the Native community. Master's degree in mental health field including; social work, counseling or psychology. Licensed Professional Counselor or Licensed Clinical Social Worker preferred.

INTERESTED APPLICATIONS:

Please complete an online application by clicking the 'Apply' button at the top/bottom of this page. For more information contact Human Resources at scfhr@southcentralfoundation.com, (907) 729-4977 or Toll free at 1-800-478-3343

NATIVE PREFERENCE UNDER P.L. 93-638.

Preference will not be given unless certification