

Full-time (37.5 hours per week) position with Copper River Native Association. Will provide primary care, walk-in urgent care, and emergency services; treatment and management of Diabetes a plus. Must have the ability to make independent clinical decisions and work in a team setting and collaboration with onsite Community Health Aide/Practitioners. Regional travel to other CRNA clinics based on need or request.

Minimum experience: 2-3 years in a remote clinical setting to include emergency care services and supervisory experience desired but will consider new graduates. Indian Health Service experience a plus. Will be credentialed through Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium.