

The Injury Prevention Program of the Caddo Nation sponsored a Child Passenger Safety Technician (CPS) Course October 9-11, 2007!

Pictured here are the 12 new CPS Techs in Oklahoma with our Caddo Nation Tribal Chairman, LaRue Parker.

From the top left: Sellena Foster, Hasanai Head Start Caddo Nation; Melvenia Domebo, Native American Injury Prevention/CHR; Jody Carr with Osage Injury Prevention; Fred Trescott, Anadarko Fire Department; Cecelia Alsobrook, OHSO; Debbie Davenport, Director Vocational Rehab Choctaw Nation;

Second Row: Jackie Arkedeta, Fort Sill Apache CHR; Bonita Paddyaker, Injury Prevention Director Comanche Nation; Laura Phillips, Comanche EMS, Jennifer Davidson, Assistant Director Vocational Rehab Choctaw Nation.

Third Row: Susan Nauni, Caddo Head Start, Amy Gomez, CHR Wichita Tribe; Pam Stotman, EMSA; Becky Morris, Injury Prevention Coordinator Choctaw Nation.

Bottom Row: Lois Smith, Hasanai Head Start Caddo Nation; Shelli Stephens-Stidham, OSDH, Hazel Tahsequah, Injury Prevention Assistant Comanche Nation, Toni Short, Injury Prevention Coordinator Caddo and Caddo Nation Tribal Chairman La Rue Parker.

The course was taught by Pam Stotman with EMSA, Shelli Stephens-Stidham with Oklahoma State Department of Health, Cecelia Alsobrook with Oklahoma Highway Safety and Becky Morris Injury Prevention and instructor candidate for CPS.