

Tena L. Larney

Program Analyst

Alaska, Billings, Nashville, Portland, and Tucson Areas

Ms. Larney is a member of the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma. She is responsible for the review of new and renewed Compact and Funding Agreement language for compliance to Title V legislation and analyzes new or proposed legislation or regulations to determine impact on the self-governance operations management. She provides assistance and guidance to Tribes, Area and Division Directors, and Program Managers in all matters relating to the Tribal Self-Governance Program. Prior to beginning a career with the Indian Health Service (IHS), Ms. Larney gained her Tribal experience by working as an Advisory Health Board Coordinator and as a Community Health Representative Director in Shawnee, OK. Throughout her IHS career, Ms. Larney has received several awards including recognition from the Nashville Area IHS as a member of the Area self-governance negotiations team, the Headquarters self-governance group citation for exemplary performance of duty, and the Director's Awards for outstanding performance, dedication and commitment to the IHS mission.

