Title: Ethics in an Ever Changing World of Nutrition

Presenter: Toby Amidor, MS, RD, CDN, FAND
President at Toby Amidor Nutrition, PC

Type of Activity: Enduring Event (Recorded Webinar)

Release Date: August 10, 2022

Expiration Date: May 31, 2024

Estimated Time to Complete Activity: 60 minutes

Live Session Originally Presented on: July 27, 2022

Information about the webinar presentation:

The crossroads between nutritional science and personal beliefs have recently led to turmoil within the dietetic and healthcare community. Dietetic professionals are guided by ethics set forth by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics in every aspect of practice. The speaker will discuss how dietetic professionals can wade through the sea of muddled ethics and strengthen the health care profession through strong moral values.

Training Objectives and Outcomes: As a result of completing this training, the healthcare team will be able to:

1. Examine areas within dietetics practice that can lead to compromised ethics.
2. Incorporate the ethical and social media guidelines set forth by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.
3. Utilize ethical and moral decision making frameworks when faced with controversy in the dietetic profession.

Requirements: If you plan to join the webinar session, you must have a computer with broadband Internet access. For the best experience viewing the videos, use Microsoft Edge or Google Chrome. If you have any trouble viewing the video trainings, contact us at diabetesprogram@ihs.gov for alternate viewing options.
