Learning Objectives – At the conclusion of this webinar session, the participants will be able to:

1. Define and identify the value of the educator/provider-participant relationship.
2. Identify the drivers of change.
3. Describe how the Native-led nonprofit, the Notah Begay III (NB3) Foundation is addressing childhood obesity in Native communities by investing in Native-led research, grant making, technical assistance and advocacy in partnership with Native communities across the country.
4. Analyze current lessons learned, opportunities and challenges as the result of our grant making and participatory evaluation framework since launching in 2013 in supporting 59 Native communities (Native-led nonprofits and Tribes) across the country.
5. Share key resources focused on addressing childhood obesity in Native communities.
