

Job Title: Family Clinician

Location: Fairbanks

Job Summary: Job Summary: Under the direction of the Clinical Supervisor of Addiction Services, incumbent provides Family Clinical Intervention to substance abusing families. This position requires knowledge and experience in substance abuse related family issues as well as Alaskan Native traditional practices. This position will provide family, individual and groups counseling services as well as age and culturally appropriate referrals to local community providers.

Qualifications: EDUCATION: Master's Degree in Social Work, Psychology, Counseling, or other related Human Services field; AND three years experience in the Behavioral Health field OR equivalent combination of education and work experience. Licensed or licensable within 12 months.Strong understanding of co-occurring related issues: Level 1 Alaska Chemical Dependency Counselors Certification preferred; certification required within 12 months of hire.Must have current Alaska State Drivers License. Familiarity with Alaska Native Traditions and Cultures. Able to travel for extended periods with short notice.FBI background check.One year sobriety required, U.A. monitored.Functional awareness of cross cultural issues in Counseling.Other duties as assigned.

Closing Date: Open until filled