NUMBER OF VACANCIES: Applications are being accepted from all interested applicants, regardless of where they reside, for placement in the Competitor Inventory for future referral when vacancies occur. Positions may be permanent or temporary, full-time, part-time or intermittent (work only when called). Refer to "HOW TO APPLY" for application process and information. If an initial or original appointment to a temporary or term appointment is made from this vacancy announcement, the original action or appointment could be extended without further announcement of the position.

This position is covered under the Child Care and Indian Child Worker Laws, P.L. 101-647 and P.L. 101-630; therefore, all applicants must complete and sign the required "Addendum to the Declaration for Federal Employment." Responding "Yes" to any one of the two questions can make you ineligible for employment in this position.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Positions may be filled at one of the grade levels listed above. Depending on the type of appointment and location, some permanent positions have promotion potential to the GS-11 or GS-12.

DUTIES: Incumbent assesses community nutrition needs; evaluates nutrition services in the Service Unit and reservation communities; recommends policies, procedures and program; establishes long and short-range objectives; sets priorities, plans methods and evaluates progress. Participates in the development of Health Promotion/Disease Prevention programs. Provides technical consultation to professional and allied health staff of Indian Health Service,

Tribal and Community, school and institutional settings. Works with other health care professionals in the development of appropriate, culturally specific nutrition education materials. Cooperates with personnel of other health agencies and groups serving the Indian population to coordinate Service Unit nutrition activities and programs. Prepare special and periodic reports. Performs other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: YOUR DESCRIPTION OF WORK EXPERIENCE, LEVEL OF RESPONSIBILITY, AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS WILL BE USED TO DETERMINE THAT YOU MEET THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS.

BASIC REQUIREMENTS:

EDUCATION: Degree in Dietetics, Food, Nutrition, Food Service Management, Institution Management, or related science.

SUBSTITUTION OF EDUCATION FOR EXPERIENCE: Graduate education may be substituted for experience in accordance with the OPM Qualification Standards for General Schedule positions. GS-9: 2 years of progressively higher level graduate education leading to a Master's degree or Master's or equivalent graduate degree. GS-11: 3 years of progressively higher level graduate education leading to a Ph.D. degree or Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral degree.

IN ADDITION TO THE BASIC REQUIREMENTS: Applicants must have 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-11 to qualify for the GS-12; 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-9 to qualify for the GS-11; and 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-7 to qualify for the GS-9.

SELECTIVE PLACEMENT FACTOR: Each PHS dietitian must possess and maintain current registration with the Commission on Dietetic Registration. New graduates may be appointed for up to 52 weeks pending the successful completion of the Commission's registration requirements. Evidence of registration must be provided by the end of the 52-week period. Please submit a copy of your current registration with your application.

TIME-IN-GRADE REQUIREMENTS: Candidates must have completed at least 52 weeks at the GS-11 level to qualify for the GS-12; at least 52 weeks at the GS-9 level to qualify for the GS-11; and at least 52 weeks at the GS-7 level to qualify for the GS-9. (This requirement will be eliminated effective 03-09-2009.)

LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS: Candidates must meet time-after-competitive appointment, time-in-grade (until 03-09-2009), and qualification requirements by the time the certificate is issued.

CONDITION OF EMPLOYMENT: Immunization Requirements - All persons born after 12-31-56 must provide proof of immunity to Rubella and Measles. Serology testing to confirm immunity and/or immunizations will be provided free of charge. Special consideration may be allowed to individuals who are allergic to a component of a vaccine, have a history of severe reaction to a vaccine, or who are currently pregnant. This applies to candidates for positions in any Service Unit or any Area office position which requires regular work at a Service Unit.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION: This agency provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the agency. The decision on granting reasonable accommodation will be on a case-by-case basis.

NOTE: Refer to OPM Operating Manual Qualification Standards Handbook or the IHS Excepted Service Qualification Standard, Series GS-630 for complete information. Substitution of education for experience will be made in accordance with those standards. Please include official transcripts with your application. For more complete information, contact your Human Resources Office. Education may not be substituted for the required specialized experience at the GS-12 grade level.

WHO MAY APPLY

Merit Promotion Plan (MPP) Candidates: Applications will be accepted from status eligibles (e.g., reinstatement eligibles and current permanent employees in the competitive Federal service) and from current permanent IHS employees in the Federal Service who are entitled to Indian Preference.

Status applicants may apply under both the MPP and non-status application procedures. In this case, they must file two applications for dual consideration.

Excepted Service Examining Plan (ESEP) Candidates: Applications will be accepted from individuals entitled to Indian Preference. Current permanent IHS Excepted Service employees and Competitive Service employees or Reinstatement eligibles entitled to Indian Preference may also apply under the provisions of the Indian Health Service Excepted Service Examining Plan. These candidates MUST indicate on their Application for Federal Employment or Resume, whether their application is submitted under the IHS Excepted Examining Plan, the IHS Area Merit Promotion Plan or both.

Applications will also be accepted from individuals eligible for non-competitive appointment (e.g., applicants eligible for appointment under the Veterans Readjustment Act, the severely handicapped, those with a 30% or more compensable service-connected disability).

Veteran's Preference: Veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after 3 years or more of continuous active service, may apply.

Commissioned Officers: Commissioned Officers may indicate an interest in being considered by submitting a resume. Commissioned Corps applicants will be evaluated by the Personnel Office against the applicable Preston standard or the civil service standard, if no Preston standard exists. These applicants must describe the experience gained in their two most recent positions and provide the dates they occupied those positions.

In addition, Commissioned Corps applicants must also provide information regarding education, including degrees obtained and schools attended by submitting official transcripts and they must include home/work telephone numbers if this information is not contained in the resumes. When required by the vacancy announcement, these applicants must submit specific information related to any knowledge, skills and abilities which are being used as selective factors. Commissioned Corps applicants may also be required to submit proof of Indian Preference and proof of possession of the appropriate license.
