Charge of the Workgroup

The TSGAC provides advice to the IHS Director and assistance on issues and concerns pertaining to Tribal Self-Governance and the implementation of the Self-Governance within the IHS.

The TSGAC represents Self-Governance Tribes by acting on their behalf to clarify issues that affect all compacting tribes specific to issues affecting the delivery of health care of American Indian and Alaska Natives. On a quarterly basis, they meet to confer, discuss, and come to consensus on specific Self-Governance issues. Additionally, the TSGAC provides verbal and written advice about Self-Governance issues to the Director, IHS and the Director of the Office of Tribal Self-Governance.

Eligibility for the IHS Self-Governance Program

Complete a Planning Phase:

Each Tribe is required to complete a planning phase to the satisfaction of the Tribe

Request Participation in the Program:

Each Tribe to be served must submit a Tribal resolution or other official action by the governing body of the Tribe requesting participation

Demonstrate Three years of Financial Stability and Financial Management Capability:

For three years prior to participation, the Tribe must show evidence there were no uncorrected significant and material audit exceptions in the required annual audit of the Tribe's agreements with any Federal agency
