YRTC
Tribal Advisory
Committee (TAC)

Background

- The Youth Regional Treatment Center (YRTC) Bylaws indicate that there is to be a Tribal Advisory Committee (TAC) to advise the Governing Body
- The YRTC TAC will serve in an advisory capacity and will not be involved in any functions that are considered inherently governmental
- It is not necessary for YRTC TAC members to be mental health providers
- YRTC TAC representatives must adhere to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA)
- The CATAC has been acting as the YRTC TAC since November 2016

Role of the YRTC TAC

- The advisory role of the YRTC TAC is to:
 - provide culturally appropriate guidance for the Governing Body
 - review committee reports
 - Review program outcomes
 - Participate in strategic planning

Vote

- 1) Do you want to
 - a) continue utilizing the CATAC as the YRTC TAC
 - or
 - a) elect new representatives for the YRTC TAC?

If you choose to elect new representatives, each of the four California regions (North, East Central, West Central, South) must elect one representative and one alternate. Additionally, California urban Indian healthcare programs are to appoint one urban representative (ex-officio).
