Advancements in Diabetes Recorded Sessions

Title: Innovations in Nutrition Care for Reaching Patients

Presenters: IHS Dietitians: Stacy Hammer, Abbey McCarthy, and Darian Schaubert

Type of Activity: Enduring Event (Recorded Webinar)

Release Date: March 29, 2017

Expiration Date: March 28, 2020

Estimated Time to Complete Activity: 60 minutes

Target Audience: Indian Health Service, Tribal and Urban (ITU) health care providers in clinical and community health settings.

Description:

This seminar will provide participants with the opportunity to learn about a variety of innovative ways to connect with patients to provide diabetes education. The session will include an overview of effective approaches for providing diabetes education, including use of group education, food bank pantry, grocery store tours, connecting elders and youth, and community advisory boards. Details for effective use of these and other approaches with a variety of audiences will be shared.

Training Outcomes/Objectives:

As a result of completing this training, participants will be able to:

1. Utilize group education techniques to provide effective group education sessions.
2. Identify resources for development of a food bank pantry you may consider establishing and using in your work setting.
3. Describe elements of a process for bringing youth and elders together to learn about improving health and well-being.
4. Identify one change you can make in your clinical or public health practice.
