

Are You Pregnant?

To help avoid having a premature baby, you should have your teeth and gums cleaned during the second trimester of your pregnancy.

Studies have shown that pregnant women who have gum disease are 7 times more likely to deliver a premature, low birth weight baby.

Call your local dental clinic for more information or contact:

Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, Inc.
Dental Clinical and Prevention Support Center

2214 N. Central Avenue, Suite 100

Phoenix, AZ 85004

Phone: 602-307-1576

Fax: 602-258-4825

Email address: www.itcaonline.com

