Completion of the IHS Dental Specialties Reference Guide was the combined effort of many IHS specialists who revised and added to the materials contained in the previous edition of the manual. Each of these specialists built on the work that was begun with the first edition of the manual, published in 1979, and then revised and edited in 1995, 2003 and 2019.

The original edition, entitled Clinical Specialties in Dentistry was written by the following authors:

M Cam Crump, DDS, Endodontics
Richard Q Dunn, DDS, MSD, and John H Nasi, DDS, MS, Periodontics
Ron Fink, DDS, MS, and William J Kline, DDS, MS, Pedodontics
Russell O Glauser, DDS, MSD, Orthodontics
Warren V Judd, DDS, MS, Oral Surgery and Hospital Dentistry
Blair W Thurgood, DDS, MSD, Prosthodontics
David C Schrupp, DDS, Treatment Planning

The first revision of the Dental Specialties Reference Guide was completed in 1995. This 2nd edition was edited by William Neindorff, DDS, MPH (under contract with the IHS), and Scott Bingham, DMD, MPH served as the project coordinator. This edition eliminated the chapter on Hospital Dentistry, split the Prosthodontics chapter into Fixed and Removable chapters, and added a chapter on General Dentistry. The chapter authors for the second edition were as follows:
