

STAFF

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES:

Kathy LaBonte, RN, MSN

Director

605-355-2206

Green, Georgia, BSN, RN

605-355-2202

Brenda Mills, RN, BSN

605-355-2203

Case Manager/ PHN Assistant

Leo Eagle Bull,

605-355-2225

*Mission Statement:
Public Health Nursing: leading the way in building a healthy community, achieving health equity and social justice, and improving quality of life for our Native Community.*

Sioux San Hospital
3200 Canyon Lake Dr.
605-355-2206

Public Health Nurse

Interventions

- ◆ Surveillance
- ◆ Disease & Health Event Investigation
- ◆ Outreach
- ◆ Screening
- ◆ Referral & Follow-up
- ◆ Case Management
- ◆ Delegated Functions
- ◆ Consultation
- ◆ Counseling
- ◆ Health Teaching
- ◆ Collaboration
- ◆ Community Organizing
- ◆ Advocacy
- ◆ Social Marketing
- ◆ Policy Development & Enforcement

Sioux San Hospital

Public Health Nursing

“Striving to help those seeking a more positive and healthy lifestyle”

For more information:
Phone: 605-355-2206

IHS/PHN Population-Based Program Components:

- School Health
- Elder Health
- Community Health Assessment
- Community Development

- Field Screening:
i.e. Blood glucose, blood pressure,, Immunization clinics.

- Health Promotion-Disease
Prevention

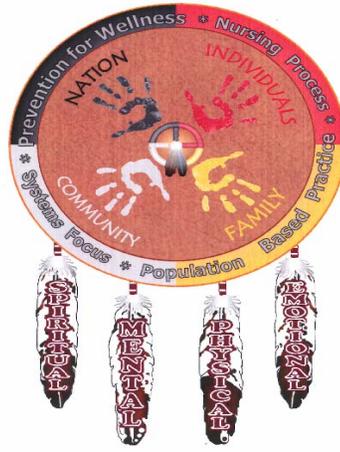

- Collaboration: Injury Prevention
and Environmental Safe Community
Assessment

- Disasters / Public Health Emergency
planning & response

- Collaboration/partnerships established with Tribal/State/County/City and other programs to maximize resources
and services

- Community & patient advocacy

- Program management & policy development

Immunizations
Medication Management
Case Management
Health Education
Prevention Activities
Health Fairs
Diabetes Education
New Born Assessments
Prenatal Education
Exercise Classes
Communicable Disease

Public Health Nursing

- PHN practice & services are community-oriented
- Health promotion & education
- Disease prevention
- Population-based
- Integration of Nursing & Public Health Sciences
- Emphasis is on primary prevention (ANA, 2010] & secondary prevention (screening, early ^{detec-} tion, referral for early treatment)
- Practice conducted in the patient home, community settings and office setting.

IHS Public Health Nurse Mission Statement

Indian Health Services Public Health Nursing provides a multidimensional public health practice to advance the health and wellness of American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) individuals, families, and communities through leadership, advocacy, and partnerships.