

Well-Woman Visits

A well-woman visit is an annual exam to support your health and well-being.

The visit may include:

- Physical exam
- Vaccine recommendations
- Screening tests
- Health education to support your best choices

You may request a nurse or a staff member to be present for your comfort.

Visit or call your local, tribal, or IHS service unit to make an appointment.

For more information,
scan the QR code.

