

Love with all your heart.

February is American Heart Month.

You can reduce your risk for heart disease. You can live a long, healthy life, and be there for your loved ones.

- Use tobacco in traditional ways only.
- Eat a healthy diet.
- Walk every day.
- Love with all your heart.

Produced by IHS Division of Diabetes Treatment and Prevention, www.diabetes.ihs.gov