Background of DVP

• Demonstration Phase:
  - Formerly known as the Domestic Violence Prevention Initiative (DVPI).
  - 65 projects were funded from August 2010 – August 2015.
  - Awards were made to IHS federal facilities, Tribes, Tribal organizations, and Urban Indian health programs that participated in a nationally coordinated pilot project to expand outreach and increase awareness of domestic and sexual violence and provide victim advocacy, intervention, case coordinator, policy development, community response teams, and community and school education programs.

• DVP Cohort 1:
  - Moving from a demonstration phase to a fully funded IHS program, DVPI became known as the Domestic Violence Prevention (DVP) program.
  - 75 projects were funded under Purpose Area #1 from September 2015 – September 2021, out of a total of 83 DVP projects.
  - Grant and Federal Awards were made to Tribes, Tribal organizations, Urban Indian organizations, and IHS federal facilities for a 5-year program that promoted the development of evidence-based and practice-based models that represent culturally appropriate prevention and treatment approaches to domestic and sexual violence from a community-driven context.
  - Due to COVID-19, the funding cycle was expanded 1-year, for a 6-year program.

• For more information, please visit: https://www.ihs.gov/dvpi/
New Funding Opportunity
Background

• In previous funding cycles, grant awards focused on community-based domestic violence prevention were funded under Purpose Area 1 of the DVPI. This activity is now announced as a distinct funding opportunity.

• This grant program will address issues related to the high rates of domestic and sexual violence among AI/AN people.

• The DVP program promotes the development of evidence-based and practice-based models that represent culturally appropriate prevention and treatment approaches to domestic and sexual violence from a community-driven context.

• This program focuses on community-based prevention efforts that address domestic and sexual violence and are aligned with the national DVP goals, https://www.ihs.gov/dvpi/aboutdvp/.
Purpose of Grant Funding

• The purpose of this IHS grant funding is to support the development and/or expansion of a DVP program by incorporating prevention efforts addressing social, spiritual, physical, and emotional well-being of victims through the integration of culturally appropriate practices and trauma-informed services for Tribes, Tribal organizations, and Urban Indian organizations (UIO) serving the AI/AN population.

• This IHS program aims to promote prevention efforts that address domestic and sexual violence, including sexual exploitation/human trafficking, Missing and Murdered AI/AN people, and child maltreatment.

• To create an effective DVP program, cross-system collaboration with other community sectors to address violence, including raising and mitigating the negative health effects and social burden.

Project Narrative Components
When Preparing the Project Narrative, Consider the Following:

- Succinctly address and answer all questions listed under required application components and place all responses and required information in the correct section, or they shall not be considered or scored.

- Adhere to the page limitation requirements for the proposal listed in the instructions. Documents that exceed the page limitation requirements will only be reviewed up to the specified page-limitation (ex: Project Narrative may not exceed 15 pages).

- The following narrative pieces will assist the Objective Review Committee (ORC) in becoming familiar with the applicant’s activities and accomplishments prior to this potential award.
Project Narrative Components

- Project Narrative – The project narrative (description) describes the project proposed scope of work, goal, objectives, and project activities that provides a description of what the applicant plans to accomplish.

- This portion of the proposal application may not exceed 15 pages.

- The 15-page limit for the narrative does not include the abstract, standard forms, Tribal resolutions, budget and budget narrative, and/or other appendix items.

• Follow all instructions included in the NOFO listed in “Section IV.2.A – Project Narrative”.

• There are four (4) parts to the Project Narrative:
  – Part 1: Statement of Need
  – Part 2: Program Plan
  – Part 3: Organizational Capacity
  – Part 4: Program Evaluation

• All four (4) parts of the Project Narrative should be answered succinctly and answer to the items or objectives listed in “Section V.1 – Evaluation Criteria”.
Part 1: Statement of Need (limit – 2 pages)

• The project narrative must include the statement of need that addresses the nature and scope of the problem (e.g., domestic and sexual violence, child maltreatment, and sexual exploitation/human trafficking).

• The applicant should use data to provide evidence that the problem exists, describe the size of the problem, and the effects of the problem on the population of focus and the community at large.

• The data documentation of need may come from a variety of qualitative and quantitative sources. Examples of data sources to be included are:
  – Local epidemiologic data from Trends in Indian Health and State data;
  – National data from My Tribal Area by the U.S Census Bureau;
  – Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reports;
  – Department of Justice; and
  – Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, National Survey on Drug Use and Health.
Part 2: Program Plan (limit – 9 pages)

• Describe the proposed program plan, an outline of goal(s), proposed implementation of the required six (6) objectives and activities.

• Using the six (6) objectives, you should describe the purpose of the proposed program plan in the narrative, a work plan, and timeline that clearly outlines the goal(s), objectives, and activities.

  – Objective 1: Establish a community coordinated response (CCR) system to address violence.

  – Objective 2: Increase educational awareness about the negative health effects and social burden on domestic and sexual violence, child maltreatment, and sexual exploitation/human trafficking in community settings and health.

  – Objective 3: Develop or expand victim advocacy services.

  – Objective 4: Integrate at least one program/intervention that is an evidence-based practice, or known as a promising practice, to facilitate the social and emotional well-being of victims and their families.

  – Objective 5: Integrate community-based culturally appropriate practices and/or faith-based services to facilitate the social and emotional well-being of victims and their children.

  – Objective 6: Develop a formal plan to ensure the sustainability of these objectives and activities beyond the life of this grant.

• Review the Section V.1 – Evaluation Criteria carefully for a more detailed review of each objective listed above.
Part 3: Organization Capacity (limit – 2 pages)

• Describe the applicant’s management capability and experience in administering grants and identify your department/division that will administer this project.

• Describe your experience and capacity to provide culturally relevant services to the community.

• Describe the resources available for your proposed project (e.g., facilities, equipment, information technology systems, and financial management systems).

• Describe your organizational experience in implementing a cross-system collaboration in combatting domestic and sexual violence, child maltreatment, and sexual exploitation/human trafficking.

• Describe your plan to include an advisory body, including membership, roles and functions, and frequency of meetings. This group may function as the cross-system collaboration work group.

• Describe how your project continuity will be maintained if/when there is a change in the operational environment (e.g., staff turnover, change in project leadership, change in elected officials) to ensure project stability over the life of the grant.

• Describe the staff positions showing the role and level of effort (percent) committed.

• In addition to any direct service staff, a full-time project lead/project coordinator is recommended to serve as the primary point of contact, manage implementation of project objectives, and establish local programmatic activities and policy focused on partnership and sustainability.

• For individuals in key positions that are identified and currently on staff, include a biographical sketch.
  – Each biographical sketch should not exceed one (1) page and should be submitted as “Other Attachments” in Grants.gov.
  – Do not include any of the following in the biographical sketch:
    • Personally Identifiable Information (i.e., SSN, home address, etc.);
    • Resumes; or
    • Curriculum Vitae
Part 4: Program Evaluation (limit – 2 pages)

- Describe your plan on gathering data, including data related to evidence-based programs and interventions proposed, how variables will be measured, what method will be used, and how the data will be used for quality improvement and sustainability of program.

- Applicants are encouraged to partner with their Tribal Epidemiology Center (TEC) or Urban Epidemiology Center (for urban applicant) and should describe their plan for coordination and collaboration with the TEC.

- Describe how you will prioritize screening efforts as a tool in identifying AI/AN women ages 14-46 who are at risk for intimate partner violence/domestic violence (IPV/DV) so that these individuals can be referred for appropriate services and data can be collected for Government Performance Results Act (GPRA) measures related to IPV/DV.

- Describe how you will prioritize screening efforts as a tool in identifying AI/AN people who are at risk for sexual exploitation/human trafficking so that these individuals can be referred for appropriate services and how data will be collected.

- Describe your plan to establish necessary data sharing agreements that will be used in support of these activities.
Budget & Budget Narrative Components
Budget

- Budget (Line Item Spreadsheet; SF-424A):
  - The budget must match the program and work plan described in the program narrative for the first budget year expenses only.
  - Include travel funds for your project director and coordinator to attend an annual grantee meeting.
  - Be very careful about showing how each item in the “Other” category is justified.

- IMPORTANT: Applications with a budget higher than the upper limit will be deemed ineligible.
Budget Narrative
(limit – 4 pages)

• Budget Narrative (Justification):
  – Provide a budget narrative that explains the amounts requested for each line item of the budget from the SF-424A (Budget Information for Non-Construction Programs).

  – The budget narrative can include a more detailed spreadsheet than is provided by the SF-424A. The budget narrative should specifically describe how each item will support the achievement of proposed objectives.

  – Do Not use the budget narrative to expand the project narrative.
Application Templates
Application Templates

- Templates are available on the DVP webpage for the following:
  - Proposal Template
  - Timeline Chart (1-year)
  - Biographical Sketch(es)
  - Budget and Budget Narrative (1-year)

- Use of the templates is not required for application submission, but strongly encouraged.

- Templates can be found at:
  https://www.ihs.gov/dvpi/fundingannouncement2021/
How to Prepare a Strong Application
Tips on How to Prepare a Strong Application

• Keep the evaluation criteria in mind when writing the application
  – Applications will be scored based on the information that is contained in the application package.
  – Be sure the application forms and the information in your narratives are complete, clearly written and address the criteria that will be used when the application is reviewed.
  – Do not assume that reviewers are familiar with the applicant organization, service area, barriers to health care or health care needs of your community.
  – All evaluation criteria are listed in “Section V.1 – Evaluation Criteria”.

• Start preparing the application early
  – Allow plenty of time to gather required information from various sources.

• Be concise and clear
  – Make your points understandable.
  – Provide accurate and honest information, including candid accounts of problems and realistic plans to address them.
  – If any required information or data is omitted, explain why.
  – Make sure the information provided throughout the application is consistent.
  – Your budget should reflect proposed program activities.

• Use the provided templates
  – Provide all of the information requested in each section of the templates.
  – Be sure to follow the instructions at the beginning of each template.

• Follow formatting guidelines when preparing narratives
  – Be aware of the page limitations for each section (if applicable).
  – Adhere to the spacing requirements, allowable size font, and page-numbering requirements.

• Carefully proofread the application before submission
  – Mis-spellings and grammatical errors will make it hard for reviewers to understand the application.

• Carefully review a copy of your application package to ensure accuracy and completeness
  – Print out the application before submitting. Review it to make sure that it is complete and that all required documents included.
Brief Overview: Review and Selection of Applications
Review and Selection (Section V.2)

• Each application will be pre-screened for eligibility and completeness as outlined in the funding announcement.

• Applications that meet the eligibility criteria shall be reviewed for merit by the Objective Review Committee (ORC) based on evaluation criteria.

• Incomplete applications and applications that are not responsive to the administrative thresholds (budget limit, project period limit) will not be referred to the ORC and will not be funded.
  – If this occurs, the applicant will be notified of this determination.

• Applicants must address all program requirements and provide all required documentation.
Evaluation Criteria (Scoring)

• All applicants will submit the same application package via Grants.gov and undergo the same eligibility and selection criteria, according to the requirements for this NOFO.

• Points are assigned to each evaluation criteria adding up to a total of 100 points.

• Selection criteria will be based on:
  – Statement of Need: 20 points
  – Program Plan: 35 points
  – Organizational Capacity: 15 points
  – Program Evaluation: 20 points
  – Budget and Budget Justification: 10 points

• Evaluation criteria is located in Section V.1 – Evaluation Criteria.
