

World Autism Awareness Day Interagency Roundtable

5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857
5th Floor Pavilion

Tuesday, April 02, 2019

1:00PM	Blessing – Selina Keryte
1:10PM	Opening Remarks: <ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ RADM Toedt, Chief Medical Officer
1:20 PM	Autism Speaks Autism: Unique Characteristic/ Recognizing Early Signs of Autism Speaker: Emily Mulligan, Autism Response Team Manager Screening, Assessment/Evaluation, & Treatment Speaker: Pamela Dixon, Director, Clinical Services and Inclusion Living Life: Family, School, Workforce, and Independent Living Speaker: Arun Karpur, Director, Data Science and Evaluation Research Autism Speaks representatives will provide a brief description on key themes related to the Autism Spectrum Disorder, importance of early recognition/screening/evaluation/treatment, and the impact on families, education, employment, and independent living.
2:15PM	Fireside Chat - Federal Panel Speaker: Group Federal representatives will provide a brief description on key themes related to the importance of early identification, expanding treatment options, and supporting successes through agency resources, collaborations, and activities related to Autism Spectrum Disorders.
3:15PM	Question & Answer Session The audience will have an opportunity to ask Autism Speaks and Federal representatives' questions and provide an opportunity for open discussion.
3:30PM	Closing