RE: Employee Name

The above employee has requested a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”)/Rehabilitation Act, as amended, to enable the employee to perform the essential functions of his/her position. The information requested on this form will assist us in making a determination regarding the employee’s request. An Authorization for Release of Medical Information is attached to this document.

INSTRUCTIONS: Please complete the following form and have it signed by the employee’s attending health care provider. Attach additional pages as needed. Do not provide information not related to the employee’s ability to perform his/her job duties. For example, do not identify the impairment if it does not have an impact on the employee’s ability to do his/her job. Please do not send copies of medical records. We are not authorized to have medical records and are not qualified to interpret them.

Questions to help determine whether an accommodation is needed. An employee with a disability is entitled to an accommodation only when the accommodation is needed because of the disability. The following questions may help determine whether the requested accommodation is needed because of the disability.

1. What limitation(s) is interfering with job performance or accessing a benefit of employment?
2. What job functions or benefits of employment is the employee having trouble performing or accessing because of the limitation(s)?
3. How does the employee's limitation(s) interfere with his/her ability to perform the job function(s) or access a benefit of employment?

An individual with a record of a substantially limiting impairment may be entitled, absent undue hardship, to a reasonable accommodation if needed and related to the past disability.

1. What past limitation(s) is interfering with job performance or accessing a benefit of employment?

2. What job functions or benefits of employment is the employee having trouble performing or accessing because of the past limitation(s)?

3. How does the employee's past limitation(s) interfere with his/her ability to perform the job function(s) or access a benefit of employment?

Question to help determine effective accommodation options.

If an employee has a disability and needs an effective accommodation because of the disability, the employer must provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the accommodation poses an undue hardship. The following questions may help determine effective accommodations:

1. Do you have any suggestions regarding possible accommodations that are needed to improve job performance? YES NO

If so, what are they?

2. How would your suggestions improve the employee's job performance?
