GENERAL INFORMATION
You may apply for most Federal jobs with a resume, the attached Optional Application for Federal Employment or other written format. If your resume or application does not provide all the information requested on this form and in the job vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for a job. Type or print clearly in dark ink. Help speed the selection process by keeping your application brief and sending only the requested information. If essential to attach additional pages, include your name and Social Security Number on each page.

- For information on Federal employment, including job lists, alternative formats for persons with disabilities, and veterans’ preference, call the U.S. Office of Personnel Management at 912-757-3000, TDD 912-744-2299, by computer modem 912-757-3100, or via the Internet (Telnet only) at FJOB.MAIL.OPM.GOV.

- If you served on active duty in the United States Military and were separated under honorable conditions, you may be eligible for veterans’ preference. To receive preference if your service began after October 15, 1976, you must have a Campaign Badge, Expeditionary Medal, or a service-connected disability. Veterans’ preference is not a factor for Senior Executive Service jobs or when competition is limited to status candidates (current or former career or career-conditional Federal employees).

- Most Federal jobs require United States citizenship and also that males over age 18 born after December 31, 1959, have registered with the Selective Service System or have an exemption.

- The law prohibits public officials from appointing, promoting, or recommending their relatives.

- Federal annuitants (military and civilian) may have their salaries or annuities reduced. All employees must pay any valid delinquent debts or the agency may garnish their salary.

- Send your application to the office announcing the vacancy. If you have questions, contact that office.

PRIVACY ACT AND PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENTS
- The Office of Personnel Management and other Federal agencies rate applicants for Federal jobs under the authority of sections 1104, 1302, 3301, 3304, 3320, 3361, 3393, and 3394 of title 5 of the United States Code. We need the information requested in this form and in the associated vacancy announcements to evaluate your qualifications. Other laws require us to ask about citizenship, military service, etc.

- We request your Social Security Number (SSN) under the authority of Executive Order 9397 in order to keep your records straight; other people may have the same name. As allowed by law or Presidential directive, we use your SSN to seek information about you from employers, schools, banks and others who know you. Your SSN may also be used in studies and computer matching with other Government files, for example, files on unpaid student loans.

- If you do not give us your SSN or any other information requested, we cannot process your application, which is the first step in getting a job. Also, incomplete addresses and ZIP Codes will slow processing.

- We may give information from your records to: training facilities; organizations deciding claims for retirement, insurance, unemployment or health benefits; officials in litigation or administrative proceedings where the Government is a party; law enforcement agencies concerning violations of law or regulation; Federal agencies for statistical reports and studies; officials of labor organizations recognized by law in connection with representing employees; Federal agencies or other sources requesting information for Federal agencies in connection with hiring or retaining, security clearances, security or suitability investigations, classifying jobs, contracting, or issuing licenses, grants, or other benefits; public or private organizations including news media that grant or publicize employee recognition and awards; and the Merit Systems Protection Board, the Office of Special Counsel, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Federal Labor Relations Authority, the National Archives, the Federal Acquisition Institute, and congressional offices in connection with their official functions.

- We may also give information from your records to: prospective nonfederal employers concerning tenure of employment, civil service status, length of service, and date and nature of action for separation as shown on personnel action forms of specifically identified individuals; requesting organizations or individuals concerning the home address and other relevant information on those who might have contracted an illness or been exposed to a health hazard; authorized Federal and nonfederal agencies for use in computer matching; spouses or dependent children asking whether the employee has changed from self-and-family to self-only health benefits enrollment; individuals working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement or job for the Federal Government; non-agency members of an agency’s performance or other panel; and agency-appointed representatives of employees concerning information issued to the employee about fitness-for-duty or agency-filed disability retirement procedures.

- We estimate the public reporting burden for this collection will vary from 20 to 240 minutes with an average of 40 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering data, and completing and reviewing the information. You may send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to U.S. Office of Personnel Management, Reports and Forms Management Office, Washington, DC 20415-0001.

- Send your application to the agency announcing the vacancy.
Forget what you have heard about the complexities in finding a Federal job. We have made the process simple! Your job search for Federal career opportunities is now a "3 - Step Process".

Although the actual job search is your responsibility, the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) has developed the "Federal Employment Information Highway" to assist you along the way. The "Highway" is composed of 3 user-friendly systems that you can use to conduct your personal job search. These systems not only tell you the latest job openings, they provide job ready access to application materials, and also information on a wide range of Federal employment-related topics and programs (listings are updated daily).

Now you can perform your personal job search using your telephone, your personal computer, or by visiting our touch screen computer kiosks located in various locations nationwide.

STEP 1: USE ANY OF THE AUTOMATED SYSTEMS ON THE FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION HIGHWAY

Federal agencies list job opportunities on the Federal Employment Information Highway. Job seekers can use the "Highway" to find out about Federal career opportunities by using either of these three user-friendly systems. They are:

- OPM's Career America Connection at (912) 757-3000, TDD Service at (912) 744-2299, a telephone-based system that provides current worldwide Federal job opportunities, salary and employee benefits information, special recruitment messages and more. You can also record your request to have application packages, forms, and other employment related literature mailed to you. This service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Request Federal Employment Info Line factsheet EI-42, "Federal Employment Information Sources," for a complete listing of local telephone numbers to this nationwide network.

- OPM's Federal Job Opportunities "Bulletin" Board (FJOB) at (912) 757-3100, a computer-based bulletin board system that provides current worldwide Federal job opportunities, salaries and pay rates, general and specific employment information, and more. You must have a personal computer with a modem to access this system. Many of the jobs announced on the FJOB have complete text announcements attached which can be downloaded or viewed on-line, or you may leave your name and address to have application packages and forms mailed to you. This service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You may also contact us on the Internet via Telnet at FJOB.MAIL.OPM.GOV and File Transfer Protocol at FTP.FJOB.MAIL.OPM.GOV. Information about obtaining Federal job announcement files via Internet mail should be directed to: INFO@FJOB.MAIL.OPM.GOV.

- Federal Job Information "Touch Screen" Computer, a computer-based system utilizing touch screen technology. These kiosks, located throughout the nation, in
The Federal Job Search . . . A "3 - Step Process"

OPM offices, Federal Office Buildings and other locations, allow you to access current worldwide Federal job opportunities, on-line information, and more with the touch of a finger. You can also leave a request to have application packages, forms and other employment related literature mailed to you. Request Federal Employment Info Line factsheet EI-42, "Federal Employment Information Sources," for a complete listing of the locations of our Touch Screen Computers.

We suggest you check the "Highway" frequently, since job listings on these systems are updated daily.

STEP 2: OBTAIN THE VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Once you have found an opportunity that interests you, using STEP 1, you will need more information on the specific opportunity and appropriate application forms. You may obtain a copy of the vacancy announcement and a complete application package by leaving your name and address in one of the automated systems on the "Highway" or, when available, by downloading the actual announcement and any supplementary materials from the FJOB. The vacancy announcement is an important source of information. Most of the questions you may have will be answered as you read through the announcement. For example: closing/deadline dates for applications, specific duties of the position, whether or not a written test is required, educational requirements, duty location, salary, etc.

STEP 3: FOLLOW THE APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

You may apply for most jobs with a resume, or the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), or any written format you choose. For jobs that are unique or filled through automated procedures, you may be given special forms and/or instructions in the job announcement.

Although the Federal Government does not require a standard application form for most jobs, certain information is needed to evaluate your qualifications. If you decide to submit any other format, other than the OF-612, (i.e., a resume), the following information must be included:

Job Information - Announcement number, title and grade.
Personal Information - Full name, mailing address (with zip code), day and evening phone numbers (with area code), social security number, country of citizenship, veterans’ preference, reinstatement eligibility, highest Federal civilian grade held.
Education - High school name, city and state, colleges or universities, name, city and state, majors and type and year of any degrees received (if no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether semester or quarter hours).
Work Experience - job title, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and address, supervisor's name and phone number, starting and ending dates (month and year), hours per week, salary and indicate whether or not your current supervisor may be contacted. Prepare a separate entry for each job.
Other Qualifications - job related training courses (title and year), job related skills, job related certificates and licenses, job related honors, awards, and special accomplishments.
