Navigating the Draft HHS Strategic Plan – Example

Objective 1.3: Expand equitable access to comprehensive, community-based, innovative, and culturally-competent healthcare services while addressing social determinants of health

HHS invests in strategies to expand equitable access to comprehensive, community-based, innovative, and culturally-competent healthcare services while addressing social determinants of health. HHS supports community-based healthcare services to meet the diverse healthcare needs of underserved populations while removing barriers to access to advance health equity and reduce disparities. The Department also works to understand how to best address social determinants of health in its programs. Below is a selection of strategies HHS is implementing.

In the context of HHS, this Strategic Plan adopts the definition of underserved populations listed in Executive Order 13885: Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities through the Federal Government to refer to “populations sharing a particular characteristic, as well as geographic communities, who have been systematically denied a full opportunity to participate in aspects of economic, social, and civic life”; this definition includes individuals who belong to underserved communities that have been denied such treatment, such as Black, Latino, and Indigenous and Native American persons, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders and other persons of color; members of religious minorities; lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ+) persons; persons with disabilities; persons who live in rural areas; and persons otherwise adversely affected by persistent poverty or inequality. Individuals may belong to more than one underserved community and face intersecting barriers.

Contributing OpDivs and StaffDivs
ACL, AHRQ, ASPE, CDC, CMS, HRSA, IHS, NIH, SAMHSA, OASH, and OCR work to achieve this objective.

Strategies

Support community-based services to meet the diverse healthcare needs of underserved populations

- Deliver safe, affordable, accessible, quality, value-based primary healthcare to underserved populations through health centers and other community providers.
- Address COVID-19 related health disparities and advance health equity by expanding state, local, US territorial, and freely associated state health department capacity and services to improve and increase testing and contact tracing and prevent and control COVID-19 infection or transmission.
- Ensure the provision of safe, culturally-competent care and services for women, with dedicated focus on African American/Black and American Indian/Alaska Native women and people with lower incomes, during maternal, perinatal, prenatal, and postpartum periods of life, including raised awareness of pregnancy-related risk factors and available benefits.
- Work with tribal nations and Urban Indian Health programs to expand and improve pre- and postnatal care on Indian reservations and Urban Indian centers to reduce disparities in maternal and infant mortality and morbidity.

Indian Health Service Considerations to the DRAFT HHS Strategic Plan (FY 2022-2026)

MS. YVONNE DAVIS
ACTING SENIOR PLANNER
OFFICE OF PUBLIC HEALTH SUPPORT
Objective: 1:3 - Work with Tribal nations and Urban Indian Health Programs to expand and improve pre and post-natal care on Indian reservations and Urban Indian centers to reduce racial disparities in maternal mortality and morbidity and infant mortality and morbidity (HRSA, CDC, IHS, OMH).

Objective 1.2 - Engage in tribal and urban Indian organization (UIO) consultation and confer on what improving quality health care services mean.
Objective 2.3 - Ensure the safe provision of safe, culturally-competent care and services for women, with dedicated focus on African American / Black and American Indian/Alaska Native women and low-income communities, during maternal, perinatal, prenatal, and postpartum periods of life, including raised awareness of pregnancy, associated risk factors, environmental risks, and available benefits.
Objective 2.3 - Engage state level, regional, Tribal and local providers, programs, and organizations—including medical practitioners, WIC Programs, Breastfeeding Coalitions and the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP)—to develop cultural competence training and education materials for health care providers who provide services to vulnerable, low-income, high-risk, maternal, perinatal, and postpartum populations.
IHS (I/T/U) Considerations (Con’t.)

Objective 3.3 - Coordinate across federal agencies and collaborate with state, local, Tribal, private, and non-profit partners to ensure sufficient availability and equitable distribution, and equity in access to evidence-based interventions that prevent onset of symptoms and/or improve management to people diagnosed with multiple chronic conditions.
IHS (I/T/U) Considerations (Con’t.)

Objective 4.4 - Increase data interoperability between federal partners, States, Tribes, non-profit organizations, and health information exchange networks to facilitate shared understanding, application, and utility.
Objective 4.4 - Collaborate and coordinate with other HHS Divisions and USG department, State, Tribal Health Facilities, Urban Indian Organizations, and partner Subject Matter Expert steering committees to improve AI/AN health care and status data collection to improve AI/AN health care and status data collection by identifying and sharing best practices to enhance the quality and quantity of AI/AN federal health information system data, including the expansion of social well-being, equity, economic resilience, and population comparison data.
IHS (I/T/U) Considerations (Con’t.)
