

HHS-OIG Fraud, Waste, Abuse, and Mismanagement Prevention Training Resources for Tribes, Tribal Organizations, and Urban Indian Organizations

- Federal fraud and abuse laws that apply to Medicare and Medicaid providers ensure Federal funding is used appropriately, and services provided are safe and of high quality. The HHS-OIG has developed a Fraud, Waste, and Abuse for Health Care Providers - Overview course to help staff identify and gain a better understanding of conduct that violates Federal fraud and abuse laws applicable to health care providers.
- The HHS-OIG offers Training on Compliance Basics | Office of Inspector General | Government Oversight | U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, which provides important guidance to help ensure HHS funds are used to provide high-quality services to American Indian and Alaska Native communities.
- The HHS-OIG also provides a course on internal controls and Single Audits, Compliance Tools Trainings | Office of Inspector General | Government Oversight | U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, which can help protect programs against vulnerabilities in processes to avoid fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement and help programs achieve community health care goals and objectives.
- The HHS-OIG offers Special Fraud Alerts, Bulletins, and Other Guidance | Office of Inspector General | Government Oversight | U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, such as Consumer Alert: Fraud Schemes Targeting Native American Communities in Behavioral Health Treatment Centers | Office of Inspector General | Government Oversight | U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
- The HHS-OIG has several self-disclosure processes that can be used to report potential fraud in HHS programs at Self-Disclosure Information | Office of Inspector General | Government Oversight | U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
- Other HHS-OIG work related to Tribal programs can be found at Indian Health and Human Services | Office of Inspector General | Government Oversight | U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.