

MAKE IT YOUR MISSION

DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGIST

Find YOUR Full Package of an IHS Career

At the Indian Health Service (IHS), you have more than a job, you have a mission: to raise the health of American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) people to the highest level. As a Diagnostic Radiologic Technologist, your skills help providers detect illness, guide treatment, and deliver life-changing care to patients and families. From routine imaging to urgent and specialized exams, your work plays an essential role in improving access to quality healthcare while serving communities where your expertise can make a lasting impact.

COVERAGE

Rest easy knowing that IHS has you and your family's insurance needs covered. Insurance coverage may follow you into retirement after 5 years of vested service and maintaining FEHB in the 5 years leading up to retirement (conditions apply).

CAREER AND GROWTH

Start your career at IHS and benefit from opportunities to build your skills and professional growth by leveraging IHS professional development programs to fit your specific long-term career goals.

RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Earn an amazing retirement package including a traditional (defined benefit) federal pension, a 401(k) Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) with employer matched contributions, and Social Security.

CREDIT FOR MILITARY

As an IHS employee, you can choose to carry over eligible military service time that can be added to your total years of creditable service for retirement pension calculation purposes (conditions apply).

"Being part of the Radiology aspect of IHS has been incredibly rewarding because you are not only helping provide answers for patients, but also serving a community that truly values compassionate care. Radiology is the eyes of medicine, and I enjoy working alongside a team that is dedicated, supportive, and committed to making a difference every single day."
