

If your water goes through a water meter and you pay a water bill, you are connected to a community water supply. You'll want to know the location of your water meter box.

The box contains a meter with a cut off to stop water flow into the house if you detect a leak or need to make a plumbing repair.

Avoid driving over the water meter box and keep the lid in its place.