About the Presenter

Dr. Bonham is a psychiatrist with an interest in access to care and developing community partnerships. She has worked as a psychiatrist in the United Kingdom and rural Australia and has been on faculty at UNM since 2010. She oversees the Division of Community Behavioral Health in the UNM Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences which addresses health disparities among individuals with mental illness in New Mexico through community partnered research, clinical and educational initiatives. She also serves as the psychiatric consultant for the New Mexico Behavioral Health Collaborative. Clinically, Dr. Bonham provides direct care through the UNMH Assertive Community Treatment team and to Indian Health Services sites through telehealth.

Jennifer S. Nanez, MSW, LMSW, currently serves as a Senior Program Therapist with the University of New Mexico, Division of Community Behavioral Health in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences. Ms. Nanez is an enrolled tribal member of the Pueblo of Acoma, New Mexico. Ms. Nanez has been in the social work and education fields for over 25 years, with experience working across Tribal, Urban Indian, Federal and University Systems; all with an emphasis in serving the American Indian population.
